

The National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery
NEUROSCIENCE CRITICAL CARE UNIT (NCCU)
REFERRAL and ADMISSION PATHWAY

ACC – Adult Critical Care
ESU – Emergency Stroke Unit
NCCU – Neuroscience Critical Care Unit
NCL – North Central London
NHNN – National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery
NIC – Nurse in Charge
UCH – University College Hospital

NCCU TRIAGE
○ Daily allocated NCCU Triage Consultant + Operational NIC to field all patient referrals, review and prioritise admissions on acuity of illness ○ Daily morning bed meeting with duty NCCU consultants, nurse co-ordinators and theatre co-ordinator to facilitate elective / emergency post-operative admissions ○ Triage consultant single point of contact for all acute Neurosurgery, Neurology and Stroke referrals ○ Triage consultant to participate in daily UCLH Intensive care SITREP and to be point of contact for UCLH / NCL referrals ○ Senior nurse designated as daily Operational NIC, including weekends, to coordinate all admissions and discharges as single point of contact ○ Operational NIC will manage allocation of staff across NCCU
CLINICAL RESPONSIBILITY
ACUTE ADMISSIONS ○ All emergency non-UCLH patients admitted under NCCU Consultant – however, known neurology / neurosurgery patients admitted under primary team ○ All visiting clinical teams (Neurology, Neurosurgery, Stroke) will continue to provide daily clinical input ○ Intracerebral haemorrhage patients admitted through neurosurgery pathway must be referred for review by a stroke consultant
ELECTIVE SURGICAL PATIENTS ○ Post-op / post-radiology admitted to PACU / HDU - admitted under named consultant surgeon ○ Overnight Recovery (OR) – admitted under named consultant surgeon with post-op concerns reviewed by Anaesthetic SpR and surgical team